First Public Hearing on the Tax Increase for Fiscal Year 2007-2008

Director of Budget and Research Rhodes advised that this is the first required Public Hearing scheduled due to the increase in tax revenue for Fiscal Year 2007-2008. She spoke to the next Public Hearing scheduled for August 27 and the Council being scheduled to adopt the budget on September 10, 2007. Council Member Johnson spoke to the total tax revenue increasing not because of a change in the tax rate, but due to new property on the rolls and the increase in existing property values.

Mayor Evans opened the Public Hearing. No one spoke either for or against the request. The Public Hearing was closed.

Nothing further was discussed. Mayor Evans adjourned the meeting at 5:06 p.m.
