Plano Schedules Arbor Day Observance for November 3

This year's Arbor Day observance is scheduled for Saturday, November 3 under the pavilion at Bob Woodruff Park South, 2601 Park Boulevard (south side) just east of Shiloh Road. The activities will begin at 10:00 am with a brief ceremony.

This year's celebration is in honor of the Quincentennial Tree, a giant bur oak believed to be over 500 years old!

An hour of free activities (sponsored by the Plano Parks Foundation and Plano Garden Club) are included in the Arbor Day observance. All of the young attendees may participate in fun and educational activities like Arbor Day Leaf Twister and Tree Bingo, or they can make leaf rubbings, plant some seeds and make leaf necklaces. Children may also decorate tasty tree cookies with supplies provided by Whole Foods. Adults will have the opportunity to become better informed about related environmental issues with a visit to the on-site tree information station.

For information about Plano Parks and Recreation's Arbor Day Observance call 972-941-7250.
