Plano's Open House Becomes Animal House on Nov. 10

The Plano Animal Shelter will celebrate National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week on Saturday, Nov. 10 with an Open House. The festivities begin at 10 a.m. and end at 4 p.m. at Plano Animal Services, 4028 W. Plano Pkwy.

Pet owners can utilize a low-cost vaccination clinic from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. A microchip clinic will also be available. The Plano Dog Park Association will be taking festive holiday photos from 12 p.m. to 2 p.m. with Santa Paws, a Great Pyrenees. Exciting contests and door prizes, along with refreshments, will make the day even more fun. All the great dogs and cats available for adoption at the shelter will be meeting and greeting visitors. The caring team that tends to these special pets will be available, along with the new Animal Service checks. Don't forget to ask about volunteer opportunities. A special thanks goes out to Mayor Pat Evans, Mayor Pro Tem Sally Magnuson, Deputy Mayor Pro Tem Jean Callison, City Council Members Shep Stahl, Scott Johnson, Loretta Ellerbe, Harry LaRosiliere, Lee Dunlap, and City Manager Thomas H. Muehlenbeck for sponsoring this great community event.

National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week was created by the Humane Society of the United States and is celebrated annually from Oct. 4 through Nov. 10, 2006.
