Historic Downtown Plano Association presents Downtown@Sundown Final 2007 Event slated for November 10

Find out why hundreds of people are marking the monthly Downtown@Sundown event on their calendars! The final 2007 Downtown@Sundown event will be held Saturday, November 10th from 5pm-10pm. Activities during Downtown@Sundown include: Live Music, Art Walk, Vendor Marketplace, Silent Auction, extended Shopping hours for merchants, and additional special activities. Downtown restaurants are also open for dinner and late night drinks.

Live music will be provided by Leah Marr and Souville with the Assistance Center of Collin County the recipient of November Silent Auction proceeds. Tickets are available at the Historic Downtown Plano Hospitality Booth in The Marketplace.

The Marketplace features vendors in the fields of Homemade Arts & Crafts, Food, Gourmet Foods, Manufactured Crafts, Photography/Art, and Business Information. Downtown parking is plentiful and marked, with transport through DART rail – Plano Downtown Station – dropping persons into the very heart of the event.

For vendor information and information on the event visit www.visitdowntownplano.com or call Jon Hubach at 972-941-5260.

Downtown@Sundown is proudly sponsored by Time-Warner Cable and the Historic Downtown Plano Association. Additional sponsorship is provided by Dallas Observer, Central Market, First Choice Emergency Room, NeighborsGo.com, Mission Gate Apartments, Green Mountain Energy, Saturn of North Texas, Plano Chamber of Commerce, Plano Convention & Visitors Bureau and the City of Plano.

The Historic Downtown Plano Association is the Official Association of Downtown Plano. Members include Downtown Merchants, Building Owners, Friends of Downtown Plano, and anyone who cares about the future of Downtown Plano. Anyone with an interest in Downtown Plano is invited to attend meetings held First Tuesdays at 6pm inside the Plano Chamber of Commerce Offices, 1200 E. 15th St.
