Plano Gears Up for 29th Annual Parks and Recreation Christmas Crafts Fair

Now is the chance to get a jump on your holiday shopping at the City of Plano's 29th Annual Christmas Crafts Fair on Saturday, November 17 from 10am to 5pm; and on Sunday, November 18 from noon to 5pm at Plano Centre – 2000 East Spring Creek Parkway.

Craft vendors come from all over the state to show and sell unique holiday decorations and gifts. This year's selection will feature a wide variety of homemade Santa figurines, wreaths and tree skirts, as well as handcrafted items such as gourd bird feeders and houses, an assortment of hand painted ornaments and blown glass items. Guests will also find edible gifts such as specially roasted nuts, jams and sauces. Children's clothes, scarves, appliquéd fashions and baby quilts will also be available.

With over 80 booths to choose from, this is the place to purchase that unique gift for that hard-to-buy-for individual. Many crafters from last year's show will be returning, in addition first time vendors offering new unique pieces for the home and hostess.

One of the many booths at the Christmas Crafts Fair is Hip Hip for Gray – returning for its sixth year – which provides Collin County seniors a venue to sell a variety of crafts (e.g. hand-crafted quilts, hand painted items, tree skirts, ornaments and floral arrangement, plus many more items).

Admission and parking are FREE! If you're looking for that one special gift, mark your calendar and come to the 29th annual Christmas Crafts Fair.
