Video Gaming Offered at All Five Plano Libraries in December

All five Plano libraries will feature video game days especially for grandparents and grandchildren in December. Seniors can learn cool new Wii and Playstation video games from their grandchildren or one of our teen volunteers. Teens and children can bring their grandparents to the library and show off their skills.

Drop-in sessions are scheduled from 2 to 4 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 29 at Haggard Library, 2501 Coit Road and Parr Library, 6200 Windhaven Parkway; on Tuesday, Dec. 30 at Harrington Library, 1501 18th Street and Davis Library, 7501-B Independence Parkway; and Wednesday, Dec. 31 at Schimelpfenig Library, 5024 Custer Road.

Funded by a grant from the National Forum for Black Public Administrators/North Texas, Grand-Gaming offers a chance for families to connect and play at the library!

For more information on this and other programs presented by the Plano Public Library System, please visit www.planolibrary.org or call (972) 769-4250.
