Newly formed Plano Photographic Traffic Signal Advisory Committee gets the focus

Plano City Council recently approved the formation of a new citizen group call the Photographic Traffic Signal Advisory Committee. The City Secretary's office is currently accepting applications from residents interested in serving on this Committee. The deadline to receive applications is February 28, 2010.

This Committee is tasked with the job of advising City Council on the installation and operation of Plano's photographic (Red Light Camera) traffic signal at newly selected intersections pursuant to Chapter 707 of the Texas Transportation Code.

The Photographic Traffic Signal Advisory Committee will consist of eight members – one appointed from each council member – with each member serving 2-year terms. For the initial term, three members will serve 3-year terms, three members will serve 2-year terms, and two members will serve 1-year terms.

For more information about the Plano boards and commissions application process and eligibility, contact the City Secretary's office at 972-941-7551; or plano.gov/City\_Hall/CityGovernment/Boards\_Commissions/Pages/default.aspx.
