Compile a Family Medical History at Haggard Library

The Genealogy, Local History, Texana, and Archives division of the Plano Public Library System will present a class on creating a medical family tree on Wednesday, May 12 from 10:30 a.m. to noon in the Jeanette Bickley Bland meeting room at Haggard Library, 2501 Coit Road. A medical family tree can be a valuable asset for your immediate family and future generations. Learn which diseases have a genetic component, how to gather the information and what to do with the results. No registration required.

For more information, visit www.planolibrary.org or call (972) 769-4240.
