Wild Wonders from the Fort Worth Zoo Coming to Harrington Library

“Wild Wonders from the Fort Worth Zoo” will visit Harrington Library, 1501 18th Street, on Saturday, May 15 at 2 p.m. This interactive program will provide an up-close experience with wildlife from all over the world. Some of the animals featured in past programs have included an alligator, Burmese python, black-footed penguin, kinkajou, Hyacinth macaw, springhaas, African serval and the wrinkled hornbill, among others. Animal outreach specialists will also discuss conservation efforts. This program is appropriate for all ages and registration is not required.

“Wild Wonders from the Fort Worth Zoo” is funded by Friends of the Plano Public Library. For more information, visit www.planolibrary.org or call (972) 941-7175.
