Jury Finds in Favor of City in Teiper vs. Plano Case

Today, a federal jury found in favor of the City of Plano in a lawsuit brought by former employee Steve Teiper. Mr. Teiper was discharged in October 2008 for abandoning his position when he took unexcused leave.

The jury found that Mr. Teiper's claims under the Family and Medical Leave Act were unfounded and granted a verdict for the City. Attorneys Marigny Lanier and Robert Maris represented Plano in this case.
