National League of Cities announces Plano City Council Member Appointments to Numerous Committees

The National League of Cities (NLC) has again honored the City of Plano with the appointment and/or re-appointment of several City Council Members as representatives to key NLC policy committees.

“The NLC is the nation’s largest organization serving as a resource and advocate for more than 19,000 cities, villages and towns throughout the United States,” said Mayor Phil Dyer. “It is very gratifying that Plano is held in such high esteem to have representation on five NLC Committees which provides benefit to our organization as well as to the NLC.”

2012 appointments announced by NLC President Ted Ellis include:

- Mayor Pro Tem Pat Miner, Vice Chair, Information Technology & Communications Committee
- Deputy Mayor Pro Tem Lissa Smith, Member, Leadership Training Council and the First Tier Suburbs Council
- Council Member Lee Dunlap, Chair, Transportation Infrastructure & Services Committee
- Council Member Andre’ Davidson, re-appointed as Member, Energy, Environment & Natural Resources Steering Committee
