

Day Labor Center
805 Ozark Drive, Plano, TX 75074

Staff Commitment to Service

The staff members of the Plano Day Labor Center strive to provide excellent customer service to all participants in the Day Labor process including workers, contractors, visitors, and one another. We are committed to the following, in order to best serve our customers:

1. Staff will open the center at the allotted time to allow workers to register.
2. Staff will meet with contractors and determine their needs.
3. Staff will select workers to fill the needs of the contractors based on the established, written procedures.
4. Staff will ensure the rules, regulations, policies, and procedures of the center are being followed.
5. Staff will treat workers, contractors, visitors, and one another with respect and courtesy.
