

New On-line Programs for Citizens

As part of our continuing commitment to provide outstanding police services to the community, the Plano Police Department provides several new on-line services. These programs are quick, easy, and free. We invite you to explore these new programs by clicking on the links provided below.

CrimeReports is a crime alerting and Mapping service that provides easy to read incident crime maps and automated alerts to the citizens of Plano.

CrimeReports.com provides law enforcement agencies with an affordable and easy-to-use Web-based service for managing and controlling the sharing of crime data with the public, in near real-time. Community members can then access their neighborhood crime information for free, empowering them to make informed decisions to help improve the safety of their families, friends, property and the community at large.

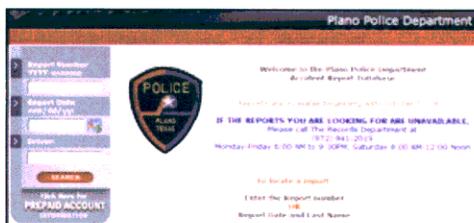

OffenderWatch.com provides on-line access to search for the presence of registered sex offenders in proximity to homes, places of work, schools and day-care centers.

OffenderWatch® is the nation's leading registered sex offender management and community notification tool with hundreds of leading agencies in dozens of states utilizing it. Collin County's law enforcement utilizes OffenderWatch® to manage and monitor the whereabouts, conduct and compliance status of the registered offenders in Collin County. OffenderWatch® provides the most accurate and timely information available and now this information is available to you!

PoliceReports.us provides on-line access to motor vehicle crash reports.

Reports are available for accidents that occurred after August 1, 2007. You must have two of three pieces of this information: the report number, the date of the crash, the name of one of the drivers. The cost of a motor vehicle crash report is $5.00 whether obtained via the Internet, in person or by mail.
