HOMICIDE

On July 15, 2007 at approximately 10:30 p.m., Plano Fire Department personnel were clearing an unrelated call for service when they discovered a male subject lying on the side of the road near the intersection of East Park Boulevard and Peachtree Lane.

Plano Police Officers were dispatched to that location and upon arrival, it was determined that an adult male was found deceased with an apparent gunshot wound.

The Collin County Medical Examiner arrived on scene and took custody of the deceased. The identity of the body is pending notification from the Medical Examiner's Office.

The circumstances surrounding the death are under investigation at this time.
