INJURY TRAFFIC CRASH

On January 24, 2007 at approximately 5:00 p.m., Plano Police Officers were dispatched to a motor vehicle crash with injuries at the corner of West Plano Parkway and Woodburn Corners. Upon Officers arrival at the location it was determined that a driver, eastbound on Plano Parkway, ran a red light and collided with a westbound vehicle.

As a result of the collision, the driver of the second vehicle lost consciousness and veered off the roadway into a soccer field adjacent to the roadway. The driver was then transported to a local area hospital due to injuries caused by the accident.

The driver of the eastbound vehicle was cited for Disregarding a Traffic Control Device.
