BURGLARY OF A HABITATION

On October 24, 2007 at approximately 12:00 p.m., Plano Police Officers were contacted by the Dallas Police Department Deployment Unit in reference to burglary suspects that were actively burglarizing apartments in the 4700 block of East 14th Street. The individuals had been under surveillance due to information gathered by agencies across the metroplex including the Lewisville and Euless Police Departments.

Upon Officers arrival, two subjects were observed allegedly breaking into apartments. Both subjects were apprehended as they attempted to leave the location. The suspects were taken into custody for Burglary of a Habitation and were transported to the Plano City Jail without incident.

The suspects have been identified as Johnny Perez Medina, a 33-year old Hispanic male from Dallas, Texas and Harry J. Rivera, a 21-year old Hispanic male from Puerto Rico. Both suspects are being held on a $300,000 bond in Plano for Burglary of a Habitation and a $525,000 bond for three warrants from Dallas. Photos of the two suspects are attached.

These suspects are currently under investigation by other agencies in the metroplex for similar offenses in their areas. These arrests are a joint effort by several agencies to bring these individuals into custody.

This investigation is currently on-going.
