HOSTAGE SITUATION

On October 30, 2007 at approximately 4:15 p.m., Plano Police Officers responded to a Hostage Situation in progress in the 4100 block of West 15th Street.

Upon Officers arrival, it was determined that a 40- to 45-year old white female had entered the building carrying a silver handgun and took a doctor and her staff hostage at gunpoint. As Officers began securing the building, the suspect began releasing hostages. After the last hostage was released, a gunshot was heard by Officers inside the building.

Officers entered the doctor's suite and located a female matching the description of the suspect suffering from a self-inflicted gunshot wound. Suspect was deceased at the location.

No shots were fired by Officers at the scene.

This investigation is currently on-going.
