ROBBERY

On February 15, 2007 at approximately 1:30 p.m., Plano Police Officers responded to a Robbery at the Legacy Bank in the 1100 block of West 15th Street. Upon arrival, officers determined that a white male wearing a long sleeve maroon shirt with a white shirt underneath, jeans, and a baseball cap approached a bank teller and demanded money. The teller complied with the suspect's demands and the suspect fled on foot in an unknown direction of travel taking with him an unknown amount of currency.

The suspect was described as a white male, in his 40s, 5'10" to 6'0" in height, with a slender build.

This investigation is still on-going.
