HOMICIDE

On May 3, 2007 at approximately 3:15 p.m. Plano Police Officers were dispatched to a welfare concern in the 6300 block of Roundrock Trail. An initial assessment of the scene led officers to believe that foul play was involved in the disappearance of Jennifer McCallum, a 35 year-old white female resident.

Detectives from the Criminal Investigative Services Division responded to the location. Evidence located at the scene led the detectives to believe that a homicide had occurred. Additional information led officers to the 1800 block of Coit Road at approximately 9:13 p.m. where Curtis Lee Armstrong, a 37 year-old white male from Dayton, TX and ex-husband of Jennifer McCallum, was located. Mr. Armstrong was arrested.

The suspect's vehicle, a pick-up truck, contained evidence which connected the suspect to the crime scene. This vehicle is currently being processed by the Plano Police Department's Crime Scene Unit.

The suspect is being held in the Plano City Jail for the charge of Murder. A $500,000 bond has been placed on this individual.

This investigation is currently on-going.
